

CONTENTS

Notes on Contributors

- Editorial Tanmoy Bhattacharya and Anita Ghai 1
- Introduction Tanmoy Bhattacharya, Anita Ghai, Sharmishtha Atreja, Yogesh Yadava, Santosh Kumar & Ritika Gulyani 2-11

Invited Papers

- Dan Goodley*: Disability studies and human encounters 12-21
- Fiona Kumari Campbell*: Indian contributions to thinking about Studies in Ableism: Challenges, dangers and possibilities 22-40
- Gregor Wollbring*: Violence and Abuse through an Ability Studies lens 41-67

Provocations

- Khairani Barokka*: “Resetting” Extraction and Ableist, Colonial Pandemic Manifestations 68-70
- Tanmoy Bhattacharya*: The killing of Eyad Al-Hallaq by the Israeli border police on 30 May 2020 71-76

Commentary

- CDSI Members*: Hemachandran Karah’s paper “Ahimsa and the ethics of caring: Gandhi’s spiritual experiments with truth via an idea of a vulnerable human body” 77-93

Reviews

- Abhishek Anicca*: The beauty of patterns: A review of Five Poems by Tito Rajarshi Mukhopadhyay, 2010 94-103
- C. Raghava Reddy*: Ghai Anita, ed., Disability in South Asia: Knowledge and Experiences, Sage Publishing India, 2018 104-109
- Annavaram*: The Inauguration of a burgeoning discourse. Review of Disability Studies in India: Interdisciplinary Perspectives edited by Nilika Mehrotra, 2020. 109-115
- Tanmoy Bhattacharya*: Building with Care: A review of ‘Art Criticism and the Pandemic’ 116-120

